

CALL TO ACTION: COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Community
Pharmacist
Ambassadors

About us

This program has been developed by two leading organizations in the provision of pharmacy services to underserved communities and health equity. NOVA ScriptsCentral and National Minority Quality Forum (NMQF)'s Center for Sustainable Health Care Quality and Equity (SHC).

Provided with outreach opportunities

Assembling a national speaker's bureau of pharmacists who can connect with local YMCA's, faith-based groups, and other organizations interested in educating their community about the flu.

This online training program will focus on:

- Introducing the role of a Community Pharmacist ambassador
- Modules on flu and COVID-19 vaccination and treatment, plus more
- Understanding racial and ethnic disparities
- Strategies to effectively communicate with diverse & underserved populations

Community Pharmacist Ambassadors

Pharmacists have a unique opportunity to promote health equity by educating community members about immunizations and other health topics. The burden of vaccine inequities and other health disparities lead to severe illnesses & hospitalizations, putting the patients & health systems at risk.
